

THE AAUP IS FIGHTING FOR HIGHER ED

IN THE COURTS

We are pursuing multiple lawsuits against the Trump administration to prevent federal cuts to lifesaving research, deportation of international scholars and students for ideological reasons, and direct attacks on specific universities.

FOR HIGHER ED FOR THE COMMON GOOD

President Trump's attempts to subjugate higher ed to state power are a hallmark of autocracy. We're joining together with faculty, allies, and all those who care about the future of US democracy to stand up against these assaults on our core principles of freedom of speech, student and faculty safety, and free inquiry and thought.

FOR ACADEMIC FREEDOM AND SOLIDARITY

The principles of academic freedom and collective self-governance underlie AAUP member-driven unions and chapters. AAUP chapters are characterized by an unwavering commitment to rank-and-file organizing, local autonomy, and organizational democracy. And through our affiliation with the American Federation of Teachers, you're part of the largest union of higher education workers in the country.

If you're not a member, join today: aaup.org/join aaup