

Highly accomplished and seasoned public service professional and educator with diverse experience in higher education, fire service management, emergency medical services, emergency management, hazard mitigation, grant writing, and fire and arson investigation. Seventeen years in higher education, fourteen years as a line firefighter, and a certified level 3 instructor in the state of Florida. An energetic and results-oriented leader who utilizes a hands-on management style. Consistently exhibits strong leadership skills, complemented by considerable interpersonal capabilities to inspire and motivate subordinates and students, leading them to realize their potential. Past member of the International Association of Firefighters (IAFF) 14 years, past negotiation team member, trained in labor relations and negotiations, member and division union steward for AAUP IRSC, help establish IRSC AAUP division stewards.