

Biography:

Jonathan Rees is Professor of History at Colorado State University – Pueblo and co-President of the Colorado Conference of the AAUP. He is currently completing his first term on the AAUP National Council.

Statement:

I am a supporter of organizing the unorganized at all levels of employment in colleges and universities, which we have done extensively in Colorado during recent years. I have written extensively on issues relating to technology, teaching and academic employment. I believe that my most important contribution to the success of our organization at the national level has been to help apply AAUP principles to check the excesses of the technological transformation currently hitting American higher education.