

J. Ward Morrow is an Adjunct Labor Law Professor at the University of Maryland School of Law, and has served, since 2003, as an Assistant General Counsel/Legislative Counsel for the American Federation of Government Employees (AFGE), which represents over 700,000 employees. His expertise on federal employee Hatch Act cases and whistleblower cases have been covered significantly by media outlets, especially with whistleblowers at the Department of Veterans Affairs.

Beginning in 2000, Mr. Morrow was the General Counsel and Legislative Director for AFT-Maryland representing 15,000 state, county, and city employees. From 1990-2000, Mr. Morrow was an Assistant State's Attorney for Baltimore City where he was also cross-designated as a Special Assistant United State's Attorney.

Previously a Judicial Law Clerk to the Honorable Judge Mary Arabian and during law school clerked at the General Counsel's Office-National Labor Relations Board, and for the National Association of Letter Carriers-General Counsel.

A graduate of Johns Hopkins University with a BA in Political Science, Mr. Morrow was, the Director of the Md AFL-CIO's youth program, Frontlash, and was an organizer for Council 67 AFSCME.

Recently served as chief shop steward for the staff union at AFGE and Executive Board Member of Local 2 OPEIU and a Delegate to the Baltimore and DC AFL-CIO Labor Councils. Elected twice to the Md State Democratic Central Committee, twice been the Democratic nominee for the Md legislature. Member of the bars of Md, the U.S. District Court for Maryland, the U.S. Fourth Circuit, and the Supreme Court, as well as the AFL-CIO Lawyers Committee.