

To: AAUP National Council
From: Natalio Avani
Subject: Nominating Committee Final Report
Date: March 21, 2020

The members of the 2020 Nominating Committee are

Natalio Avani, Chair (San Francisco State University)
John T. McNay (University of Cincinnati-Blue Ash College)
Diana I. Rios (University of Connecticut)

The membership was notified by January 30, 2020, of the March 15, 2020, deadline for submission of candidate petitions and of the requirements for petitions as specified in the Constitution. A call for nominations was published in the Winter 2020 issue of Academe, and multiple electronic notices and reminder emails were sent to all members and to chapter leaders from January until immediately before the March 15 deadline. Complete information about the nominations process was also posted on the AAUP website.

In 2020, three officers—president, vice president, and secretary-treasurer—and two at-large Council members will be elected. Elections will be conducted by secret ballot of the credentialed (also called accredited) delegates at the biennial Association Meeting casting the weighted vote of their chapters as specified in Article VI, Sections 3 and 4, of the AAUP Constitution. The list of candidates is below.

2020 Nominees

Officers

President

Irene Mulvey, Fairfield University

Vice President

Paul Davis, Cincinnati State University

Secretary/Treasurer

Chris Sinclair, University of Oregon

Council Members

At Large

Donald Allensworth-Davies, Cleveland State University

Adolfo Campoy-Cubillo, Oakland University

Michael DeCesare, Merrimack College

Richard Feinberg, Kent State University

Brian T. Gallagher, University of Rhode Island

Nivedita Majumdar, John Jay College of Criminal Justice, CUNY

Glinda Rawls, Western Michigan University

Henry Reichman, California State University, East Bay

David Reid, University of Louisiana at Lafayette

Siobhan Senier, University of New Hampshire

Brian Turner, Randolph-Macon College